

WTVJ-TV

QUARTERLY LIST OF PROGRAMMING
ADDRESSING COMMUNITY ISSUES

July 1 – September 30, 2011

Quarterly Issues and Program Report

July 1 – September 30, 2011

NBC 6/WTVJ attempts to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by presenting broadcast material which treats significant issues of the people in the communities served by NBC 6/WTVJ.

The community issues to which WTVJ addressed significant programming were determined by knowledge obtained through community involvement and informal ascertainment of the general public, community leaders, public officials, inclusive of different ethnic organizations and service organizations, the following list emerged as issues needing media attention and support.

NBC 6/WTVJ recognizes that it has an ongoing obligation to remain aware of such community issues and to exercise its best judgment as to what broadcast matter should be programmed to treat those needs and interests. This report includes a brief description of such community issues and some of the programs we believe have provided the most significant treatment of such issues during the period July 1 through September 30, 2011.

The programs produced to meet the needs of the public include locally produced shows and newscasts as well as national programs, public service announcement campaigns, and sales marketing campaigns.

Community Issues

Politics
Health
Environment
Consumer/Economy
Education
Family
Ethnic/Diversity
Live Positive
Community

Locally Produced Programs

Our locally produced, regularly scheduled programs address community issues, concerns and needs. The programs are as follows:

NBC 6/WTVJ News – Daily Local News Programs – WTVJ’s daily newscasts devote considerable time to local issues and community problems.

Regularly scheduled, locally produced newscasts and programming include:

Program	Time	Days
NBC Miami News at 5am	5:00-5:30 am	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami News at 5:30am	5:30-6:00am	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami News at 6am	6:00-7:00am	Monday-Friday
Live Miami at 11am	11:00-12:00pm	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami News at 5pm	5:00-6:00pm	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami News at 6pm	6:00-6:30pm	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami News at 11pm	11:00-11:30 pm	Monday-Friday
NBC Miami Today Saturday	6:00-7:00am	Saturday
NBC Miami Today Saturday	9:00-10:00am	Saturday
NBC Miami News at 6pm	6:00-6:30 pm	Saturday
NBC Miami News at 11pm	11:00-11:30 pm	Saturday
NBC Miami Today Sunday	6:00-8:00am	Sunday
NBC Miami News at 6pm	6:00-6:30 pm	Sunday
NBC Miami News at 11pm	11:00-11:30 pm	Sunday

POLITICS

NBC 6 is devoted to covering a myriad of local, national, and international government issues during its newscast. The coverage includes profiles of policy makers, political debates, political controversies, and school board issues.

Debt Talks

Reporter: Kevin Corke

7/22/2011 5pm

Length: 1:57

President Obama today said shrinking government and raising taxes are never fun. However, these are the main features of a new deal President Obama seeks to pass, in order to balance the national budget, and avoid a default on August 2nd.

Debt Debate

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/27/2011 5pm

Length: 2:02

The deadline is Tuesday, and Washington is showing no sign of reaching a deal on the debt ceiling. A major House vote had to be put off until tomorrow.

Obama's 50th Birthday

Reporter: Whitney Paul

8/4/2011 5pm and 11pm

Length: 1:18

The crew of Air Force One and members of the press pool sang Happy Birthday to the President after he returned from Chicago early morning. Then once the sun came up, a high school marching band gave Mr. Obama a grand "Happy Birthday" wish outside the White House. If the President's personal second wish is a second term in office he's got some work to do. A Quinnipiac poll released today shows fifty percent of Florida voters don't think Mr. Obama deserves a second term.

Political Battle in Miami City Hall

Reporter: Hank Tester

9/26/2011 6pm

Length: 1:45

Another day, another political battle in Miami City Hall this time the police union and commission are going at it over a new agreement.

HEALTH

As the first generation of Baby Boomers are retiring and more people are becoming health conscious, NBC Miami offers an array of reports – from the most concerning and relevant health issues to the latest in medical technology.

Allergy Sniffing Dog

Reporter: Jackie Nespral/Kevin Corke

7/22/2011 5pm

Length: 2:35

Allergies is something millions of people suffer from each day, but imagine living with a peanut allergy so severe, it could kill you. One young man in Connecticut knows that life all too well. However, a special four-legged friend is helping to keep this young man out of danger. This service dog is specifically trained to sniff out dangerous items before they cause harm.

Flip Flops Harm

Reporter: Kevin Corke

7/22/2011 5pm

Length: 2:11

With extreme South Florida summer heat, flip-flops seem like a practical and fashionable footwear choice for those hot summer days. However, doctors warn that these shoes may put you at risk for painful injuries.

Art Brain Therapy

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

7/27/2011 5pm

Length: 2:35

Simple tools such as paper, pencil, and colors, helped change the life of a woman who suffered a brain injury in a car accident. Now 23 years later, this woman is on a mission, donating art therapy sessions, to help others recover from emotionally from a disabling injury.

Skinny Moms

Reporter: Jackie Nespral/Kevin Corke

7/28/2011 5pm

Length: 3:00

The old saying “Pregnant women are eating for two,” seems to be slowly disappearing. Doctors stress that a normal weight woman should gain between 25-35 pounds during pregnancy. However, many soon to be moms appear to be gaining very little to no weight over the course of nine months. Some blame celebrities who barely have a bump, and drop back to normal weight within weeks versus the year doctors predict.

Student Athletes

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

7/29/2011 5pm

Length: 2:22

Heart conditions are common among athletes, but often go undetected. Tonight, a South Florida Hospital is doing what it can to help change this alarming statistic. NBC Miami Health Reporter Diana Gonzalez explains.

Heart Attacks

Reporter: Jessica Clark

8/5/2011 11pm

Length: 1:55

Heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States. Last year 785,000 Americans suffered heart attacks a quarter of them did not make it. Jessica Clark explained how that could change.

Compounding Pharmacies

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

8/4/2011 5pm

Length: 1:53

Decades ago pharmacies used to create medications for patients until big drug companies took over. Now dozens of pharmacies across South Florida are back in the mix.

Turkey Recall

Reporter: Kevin Corke

8/4/2011 5pm

Length: 1:00

A salmonella outbreak is causing meat giant Cargill to recall 36 million pounds of fresh and ground turkey. The Arkansas plant is recalling all meat produced since February 20th and it's also halted ground turkey production at that plant. The outbreak in 26 states has left one person dead and 80 other sick.

FL West Nile virus

Reporter: Jeff Burnside

8/4/2011 5pm and 11pm

Length: 1:23

Back in the sunshine state, mosquitos are making people sick. There are five confirmed cases of West Nile virus in Northern Florida.

Toxic Car Seats

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

8/4/2011 11pm

Length: 1:53

A new study found more than half of the car seats sold in the U.S. contain hazardous chemicals. Flame-retardants and chemical additives have been linked to cancer and birth defects in 60% of car seats tested. These chemicals increase the potential toxicity when they are exposed to heat and UV rays.

Wallaroo Hats

Reporter: Shiri Spear

8/11/2011 11am

Length: 4:30

In South Florida, Sun protection is always needed to keep skin looking beautiful and prevent health issues. Dermatologist trained Doctor Donna Bilumartin informed us about the new and stylish options for sun protection, Wallaroo Hats.

Smartphones Strain

Reporter: Kevin Corke

8/12/2011 5pm

Length: 1:55

A new study finds that reading, watching movies or playing games on small hand-held screens could cause problems with your eyesight. Elizabeth Temple talked about how cell phones, Ipads and kindles just to name a few can affect our eyesight.

Bladder Cancer

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

8/16/2011 9am

Length: 2:20

Nearly 70 thousand men and women will be diagnosed with bladder cancer this year in the US. Now there's a new treatment designed by a researcher at UM.

Baby Boy Trend

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

9/1/2011 5pm

Length: 2:00

Parents expecting a baby boy face a decision at birth, whether to have him circumcised. In the last decade there's been a change in the trend declining since 2009. Today the center for disease control released new information about the incidence of in hospital male circumcision. The CDC numbers don't take into account Jewish circumcisions not performed in the hospital and another factor that influences circumcision rates is whether Medicaid will pay for it. As of now, it is not covered in 15 States and Florida is one of them.

Multiple Sclerosis

Reporter: Nathalie Pozo

9/7/2011 11am

Length: 4:00

Multiple sclerosis is a chronic disease that attacks the central nervous system. The disease not only affects those with MS but also their loved ones including children. The MS Society has organized "Kids Camp 2011" which helped children deal with the daily pressures of living with a parent or relatives who has this disease.

ENVIRONMENT

With more and more people interested in living “Green” and concerned about the environment, NBC Miami offers informative reports on an array of “living green” topics on an on-going basis.

Keys Underwater Prediction

Reporter: Kevin Corke/Jackie Nespral

7/28/2011 5pm

Length: 2:28

Will the Florida Keys be underwater by the year 2100? That is a bold pronouncement from National Environmentalist Group this week, warning that Florida is among the most vulnerable places likely to be affected by climate change, and sea level rise.

Beach Waters

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

8/8/2011 5pm

Length: 1:45

New testing standards could change what kind of water health officials consider “safe for swimmers”. Local officials will no longer test for a specific kind of beach bacteria. Diana Gonzalez reported which one it is and how it affects our citizens.

Plastic Containers

Reporter: Jeff Burnside

8/12/2011 11am

Length: 2:00

It’s something that many people use in their homes, or when they go out to eat. Now one South Florida Hospital group is changing the way it serves its food in order to go green and save green at the same time.

Hurricane Irene

Reporter: Ari Odzer

8/29/2011 6pm

Length: 2:00

In the aftermath of Hurricane Irene, now some news stations, networks and even the National Hurricane center have all been accused of over-hyping the category-one storm. The Director of the National Hurricane Center told NBC Miami there was no hype, forecasters did the best they could with the current state of technology.

Living Green Fair

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

9/7/2011 11am

Length: 3:30

NBC Miami is helping you to live green. There’s a friendly competition happening in your city and all of you have to do is pledge conservation. Founder of the Wyland Living Green Fair David Etzler and Coconut Creek Commissioner Lisa Aronso join us to tell you about the Mayor’s challenge all in the name of water conservation.

Cuba Drilling

Reporter: Jeff Burnside

9/20/2011 5pm

Length: 2:30

The US and Cuba need to sit down together and put together a coordination or a protocol on the management of a future oil spill. By mid-December Cuba will start drilling for oil just 80 miles off Florida's coast. The news has many here in the US scrambling to figure out how to keep our shores safe in case something goes wrong. Because of the Cuban embargo, the drilling in Cuban waters is being done by foreign oil companies and Cuban officials say they'll adhere to the highest safety standards.

Eco Chi

Reporter: Shiri Spear

9/28/2011 11am

Length: 4:00

Feng Shui, green living and environmental awareness together they're called eco chi. The goal is to help you live harmoniously at home and with the environment. In this report NBC Miami's Shiri Spear explains.

CONSUMER/ECONOMY

NBC Miami airs series of reports dealing with the most current and most concerning consumer and economy issues.

BSO Firework Demo

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/1/2011 6pm

Length: 0:40

As you and your family celebrate the nation's independence this weekend, the Broward Sheriff's Office wants to make sure you celebrate safely. Deputies are holding their annual fireworks safety demonstration in Cooper City, to show residents how to properly handle fireworks. There were more than 6,000 fireworks related injuries last year according to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Info for Sale

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/22/011 5pm

Length: 0:46

Is the state banking off of your driver's license information? The Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles sells your name, address, date of birth, and vehicle registration information to insurance companies. The DMV profited over $63 million dollars last year from selling consumer information, and it is legal, as long as the information does not reach businesses.

Post Office Future

Reporter: Kevin Corke

7/26/2011 6pm

Length: 0:58

The US Postal Service is trying to save some money. Thousands of post offices are being considered for closure across the country, including dozens here in Florida. Several locations are under review for closure. Among these locations some do not sell enough stamps to cover employee costs, while others are surrounded by alternative options. The list of closures includes locations in Miami and Broward Counties.

Rude City

Reporter: Kevin Corke/Jackie Nespral

7/27/2011 5pm

Length: 1:51

Boca Raton, Florida is considered the 12th rudest city in the world based on a popular mobile platform, foursquare. The ranking was based on how many people used curse words on comments when they checked in on the site. Boca Raton Mayor Susan Whelcel wants to apologize for the city's rudeness with "Boca is Nice Day." The mayor and Glades Plaza merchants want to re-establish the city's image with this event. Consumers can come out for free food and coffee.

Save Your Condo

Reporter: Kevin Corke/Jackie Nespral/ Willard Shepard

8/3/2011 6pm

Length: 2:44

Condo owners, how would you like to see your monthly maintenance fees cut?

Tonight, we show you have to turn a problem in thousand of condo buildings, into cold hard cash. Willard Shepard investigates.

Unemployment Rate

Reporter: John Yang

8/5/2011 11pm

Length: 1:54

July's jobs report was released today. U.S. employers added 117-housand jobs to their payrolls and the unemployment rate ticked down to 9 point one-percent.

Unemployment Rate in Florida

Reporter: Jeff Burnside

8/5/2011 6pm

Length: 1:05

In Florida the unemployment rate went down to 10.6 this June compared to last June's 11.4. Jeff Burnside investigates where are those jobs being created in Florida. The state says most of the new jobs in South Florida are found mostly in leisure and hospitality, private education, health care and professional services.

Credit Downgrade

Reporter: Steve Handelsman

8/5/2011 5pm

Length: 2:00

Today President Obama slammed the downgrade, but promised Washington would do more to fix the underlying debt problem. Steve Handelsman investigates the latest from Capital Hill

Massive Dive in Wall Street

Reporter: Maria Bartiromo

8/8/2011 11pm

Length: 1:50

Fear has taken over Wall Street with another massive dive. A huge sell off saw the DOW Plunge 634 points to close at 10 thousand 8-10. It's the sixth largest point drop in U.S. history. The NASDAQ also closed down more than 6% and certainly this was dark day for the Nation's finances and for millions of Americans with a financial stake in the markets. This after the Unites States lost its top credit rating.

Wall Street Worries

Reporter: Steve Handelsman/ Amara Sohn

8/5/2011 5pm and 11pm

Length: 2:08

A much needed upswing today on Wall Street at the closing bell the DOW was up 429 points to 11,239. The high note came after a turbulent up and down day in trading. The lowest point came right after when the Federal Reserve Board announce no new actions to intervene in what many sees as growing economic crisis.

Cash Gold

Reporter: Amara Sohn

8/5/2011 6pm and 11pm

Length: 1:36

The uncertainty of Wall Street is prompting a Gold Rush here in South Florida. It comes as the price of gold hit a record high and becomes the choice of investment for many with more and more consumer now cashing in.

Text and Storm

Reporter: Willard Shepard

8/4/2011 5pm

Length: 2:00

Willard investigated on a new program where a simple text message can get insurance adjusters out to you home and your claim up and running if you have trouble in the days ahead.

Airshow Controversy

Reporter: Willard Shepard

8/5/2011 11pm

Length: 2:15

Now to the proposed Miami International Aerospace show it could bring thousands of jobs to South Florida and is being hailed as the Superbowl of air shows. The show was ready for takeoff and the local business and workers who would benefit were ready to fly but the CIU team learned the Air Force is keeping the show on the ground.

iPhone Scam

Reporter: Willard Shepard

8/9/2011 6pm and 11pm

Length: 2:00

The CIU discovered a scam that uses your own phone to rip you off. Police says some folks were ending up with the bills on phones they did not order and never saw.

Passport Scam

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

8/12/2011 6pm

Length: 2:20

The Better Business Bureau told the consumer investigative unit that some South Florida companies are taking money, promising to help get a passport but in the end travellers are left staying at home.

Rising Prices in A/C

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

8/17/2011 6pm

Length: 2:20

Air conditioning an absolute must here in south Florida especially during a sweltering August. Now your air conditioning is a target for thieves trying to take advantage of rising prices in the metals market.

Teen Driving

Reporter: Nathalie Pozo

8/29/2011 11am

Length: 5:00

Teenagers are on the road every day and exposed to many dangers while driving. Dave Murtaugh, Michelin tire expert, informed about what the youth of today can do to keep safe on the road and how parents can help.

Immigration Scam

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

9/1/2011 5pm

Length: 2:10

Our Consumer Investigative Unit discovered attempts by what the Government calls professional scam artist to steal money from thousands of families on the hopes of getting a visa to live here in Florida.

Hialeah Fire Layoffs

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

9/20/2011 5pm

Length: 2:20

Our Consumer Investigative Unit found that residents in Hialeah may have to pay more in their insurance bills if fewer firefighters are layoffs due to the cutbacks and tight budgets.

Hope for Homes

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

9/26/2011 6pm

Length: 2:20

Many South Floridians don't know how much longer they can hold in to their homes, there is hope for you. The CIU team found a woman with the help of a South Florida nonprofit organization willing to take on a big lender today in an effort to save her home.

Condo Insurance

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

9/27/2011 6pm

Length: 2:45

Insurance experts told the CIU that many living in condos that are paying their association dues believe they will be protected if something happens inside their unit. Unfortunately, there are many loopholes found and in a flood emergency many condo owners might be in for big surprise.

Shooger.com

Reporter: Willard Sheppard

9/28/2011 11am

Length: 3:50

Everyone these days is looking for ways to get the stuff they need without breaking the bank. The folks at a new deal site called shooger.com say you can find great restaurants, shops and other venues with the help of others.

EDUCATION

NBC 6 airs various reports addressing issues of concern to South Florida students.

High School Community Service Hours

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

8/8/2011 11am

Length: 1:05

High School students in South Florida need more than good grades to graduate, they have to be good citizens too. That's why they have to have community service hours and there's a new way for them to meet the requirements. Students or high schools interested can register online at earnhours.com. Once registered the student receive a packet with all the info and even a shipping label so it's no cost to them.

Facebook Teachers

Reporter: Cary Berglund

8/4/2011 5pm and 11pm

Length: 1:36

A new law in Missouri makes it illegal from teachers and students to become Facebook friends. Lawmakers say it's a safety measure but with the social network becoming a primary way to communicate, it is practical?

YMCA

Reporter: Shiri Spear

8/30/2011 11am

Length: 3:40

After a long day at school, most kids want to have a bit of fun. The YMCA offers exciting and educational after school programs for all ages.

FAMILY

Safe Kids in the USA

Reporter: Diana Gonzalez

8/5/2011 11pm

Length: 1:30

A National campaign designed to keep kids safe was launched in Florida and now continues at a Hospital in Hollywood. It's message is simple "Never leave your child alone in a car". Diana Gonzalez reported that last year a record number of 49 children died of hyperthermia after being left inside steaming cars and vans. Florida is second in the Nation for these deaths.

No Kids Allowed

Reporter: Janet Shamlian

8/6/2011 6pm

Length: 2:05

The "No kids allowed" movement is picking up popularity. Janet Shamlian reported that a growing number of businesses like restaurants, movie theaters and even an airline are becoming kid-free zones.

Forever Family

Reporter: Gia Tutalo-Mote

8/6/2011 6pm and 8/8/2011 11am

Length: 1:25

Gia Tutalo- Mote from Forever Family presented a beautiful story about two sisters and best friends whose only wish was to be adopted together.

Facebook Roommates

Reporter: Danya Bacchus

8/8/2011 5pm

Length: 1:35

We've heard about predators posing as children on social network sites but, fake identities aren't limited to predators. In the case of one San Diego college student, she connected with a prospective roommate who claimed to be someone she wasn't.

Elmo's Healthy Heroes

Reporter: Shiri Spear

9/23/2011 11am

Length: 4:30

Jerry Dumars, Elmo and Super Grover joined us to inform about the healthy habits through song and dance that took place in Ft Lauderdale at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.

Curtain Up!

Reporter: Nathalie Pozo

9/22/2011 11am

Length: 1:50

Jeff Kiltie from the Cultural Center came to our studios to inform us about "Curtain Up!," a family cultural event featuring a variety of entertainment and a preview of the upcoming art season.

ETHNIC/DIVERSITY

Same Sex Marriage

Reporter: Kevin Corke

7/22/2011 5pm

Length: 2:01

New York's historic same-sex marriage law went into effect Sunday, and many town clerk officers are opening their doors to issue licenses for thousands of couples wanting to tie the knot today.

Hispanic Heritage

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

9/28/2011 11am

Length: 4:30

October is Hispanic Heritage Month and in celebration of the Hispanic culture, Miami International Mall hosted the 7th Annual Hispanic Heritage Celebration with a fashion show.

Festival Miami

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

9/30/2011 11am

Length: 2:15

Amin de Jesus and Juan Turros from Group Suenalo introduced the Annual Music Festival Miami, an authentic South Florida Sound that kicked off on September 30th.

LIVE POSITIVEXmas in July

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/1/2011 6pm

Length: 0:50

Today the first annual “Christmas in July” commenced in Hollywood and Miami. The Miami Rescue Mission and Broward Outreach Centers organized the block party style bash. Those in attendance received a day of pampering, free make-up, and grooming to help get them back on their feet. Just like Christmas holiday gifts were also given out to 500 children, and each child also received a brand new pair of shoes. This event will continue through July 4th in Pompano Beach.

Dolphin Player Reading Program

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/7/2011 6pm

Length: 0:30

With an NFL lockout at hand, one Miami Dolphins player is lending his talents to help kids learn at a local library. Devone Bess got a crowd of kids pumped up about reading at the Little River Branch in Miami. The summer reading program will continue on until July 23rd, 2011.

Mom for Soldiers

Reporter: Kevin Corke/Jackie Nespral

7/27/2011 5pm

Length: 2:06

Twice a month volunteers with “America’s Moms for Soldiers” meet to put care packages together for our troops overseas. This month employees at the Adrienne Arsht Center want to get in on the action.

Backpacks for Kids

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

7/28/2011 5pm

Length: 0:58

A local South Miami business is “Living Positive” by making sure orphans and foster children in the area return to school with much needed school supplies. This is the third year The Paper Boutique has organized a “Back to School Book bag Drive.”

Student Film Olympics

Reporter: Kevin Corke

8/3/2011 5pm

Length: 2:09

A group of South Florida students are back home after they travelled to Athens where the Special Olympics began. The Communication majors from the University of Miami used what they learned to cover the 2011 Special Olympics.

Comcast Internet Essential Program

Reporter: Julia Bagg

8/4/2011 5pm and 11pm

Length: 1:55

Hundreds of thousand of Local students can count on a low-cost digital hookup this fall. It's thanks to a program called "Internet Essentials" sponsored by Comcast the parent company of NBC Miami. Julia Bagg spoke with one family who can't wait to get connected.

Student to Africa

Reporter: Christina Hernandez

8/4/2011 11pm

Length: 1:30

Christina Hernandez met a group of South Florida students who just returned from a long trip to Africa and they all came back from the trip as changed people. This after they helped change the lives of other people living in a small village in Africa.

Diary return

Reporter: Scott Evans

8/5/2011 11pm

Length: 2:10

An Idaho woman has been reunited with her late husband's war diary that she never knew even existed. Now its giving her and her family a glimpse at a time that her late husband rarely talked about.

The Russell Life Skills and Reading Foundation

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

8/8/2011 11am

Length: 4:25

Football players come and go but Twan Russell has always been a part of our community. He not only played high school football in South Florida but played for the Canes and Dolphins. Years removed from the field, he still is giving back to the place he calls home with the same passion he had in his playing days. He spoke about his commitment with the Russell Life Skills and Reading Foundation.

Snail Mail

Reporter: Joe Rosato Jr.

8/9/2011 11pm

Length: 2:20

Before texting, tweeting and facebooking, people communicated through old-fashioned letter writing. Joe Rosato Jr. gave us the details on how a group of volunteers are transforming emails into handwriting "Snail mail"

Last Summer Camp

Reporter: Amara Sohn

8/15/2011 11pm

Length: 2:00

Summer's nearly over for school kids across the country, and that means the last day for a special summer camp in New York City, in a neighborhood where many kids might otherwise spend their summer on the streets.

Surprise Wedding

Reporter: Dale Molnar

8/16/2011 11pm

Length: 1:55

Imagine it's your wedding day and the last person to know it's you! There's a woman in Canada who knows just how that feels. She showed up at a bar on Saturday thinking she was going to a retirement party only to find out her husband-to-be planned her entire wedding day behind her back.

Man Turns 103

Reporter: Hank Tester

8/29/2011 6pm

Length: 2:15

A 103 year old World War II veteran gets the birthday bash he always wanted. Harry Miller celebrated the big day out on the water with the US Coast Guard where he shared some of his war stories.

Teacher of the Year

Reporter: Kevin Corke

9/12/2011 6pm

Length: 1:00

A South Florida teacher is taking some time out of the classroom to take part in a nearly yearlong fellowship in our Nation's Capital. Allan Phipps, who was named Broward County's 2011 Teacher of the Year is participating in the Albert Einstein distinguished teacher fellowship at the National Science Foundation in Washington DC. For the next eleven months, Phipps who is a science teacher at South Plantation High School will oversee the school's award winning solar car program.

Kid Saves Family from Fire

Reporter: Jackie Nespral

9/20/2011 6pm

Length: 2:20

An 11 year-old boy made a call to 911 moments after his family escaped their burning home. That boy was supposed to be in bed but he decided to stay up a little later than usual and now he is being hailed a hero.

Bionic Pink

Reporter: Nathalie Pozo

9/29/2011 11am

Length: 4:15

The journey of battling cancer can be a hard and long process. It can be even harder to go through it alone. After surviving her own battle with stage three breast cancer, Andrea Nugent founded her own organization, Bionic Girls, to make sure no cancer victim is ever along through the process.

COMMUNITYGold Coast Roller Rink

Reporter: Adam Kuperstein

8/10/2011 5pm

Length: 1:40

An iconic hangout is closing the door on countless childhood memories here in South Florida. We're talking about Gold Coast Roller Rink in Ft Lauderdale. After more than sixty years of first date and birthday parties it will host its final event this weekend. Adam Kuperstein took a last skate around the rink.

Reyka Anniversary

Reporter: Hank Tester

8/10/2011 5pm

Length: 2:30

The Broward Sheriff's office honors one of their own today- four years after he was killed in the line of duty. BSO Sargent Chris Reyka was gunned down in a Walgreens parking lot in Pompano Beach four years ago...still no one has been charged with this murder.

The Piano Man

Reporter: Christina Hernandez

8/12/2011 6pm

Length: 1:40

The Piano player is lifting the spirits at one South Florida Hospital. The maestro playing some popular melodies, entertaining patients and visitors.

Barefoot Wine

Reporter: Nathalie Pozo

8/12/2011 11am

Length: 4:00

South Florida prides itself as having one of the most pristine beaches, the Barefoot Wine beach rescue project is doing its part to keep our beaches beautiful.

Animalia

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

8/19/2011 11am

Length: 4:20

The Miami Beach Convention Center was the perfect location to host Animalia Pet Expo. There were more than 100 exhibits and plenty of seminars and information about pets.

Pet Adoption

Reporter: Roxanne Vargas

8/29/2011 11am

Length: 4:30

The Humane Society of Broward County has been put to the challenge as it's competing in the ASPCA's adoption challenge. The goal is to double the adoption rates by the end of October.

Fashion Charity

Reporter: Shiri Spear

9/14/2011 11am

Length: 4:25

Mary Rego from Fashion for Charity was in our studios to inform us about the designer shows and fabulous items that were sold and raised money to fight human trafficking and domestic abuse.

Police Calendar

Reporter: Trina Robinson

9/16/2011 11am

Length: 4:20

The Miami Dade Police office Keandra Simmons along with Sargent Kim Andrews and Commander Delrish Moss were in our studios to promote the women in blue striking a pose calendar for charity. Calendar was released in October 2011.

Flamingo Fall Fest

Reporter: Shiri Spear

9/30/2011 11am

Length: 3:20

Fall is officially here! And the Flamingo road nursery and farmer's market hosted different Fall events like pumpkin patch, hayrides and Herbie the love bug. Jim Dezell and William Barlow came to our studios to informed about these fun festivities.